Abstract

The Law Enforcement Management and Administrative Statistics (LEMAS) survey collects data from a nationally representative sample of general-purpose agencies (i.e., local and county police departments, sheriffs' offices, and primary state police agencies). The 2016 LEMAS sample design called for the survey questionnaire to be sent to 3,499 general purpose law enforcement agencies, including 2,640 local and county police departments, 810 sheriffs' offices, and the 49 primary state police departments (Hawaii does not have a primary state police agency). The design called for all agencies employing 100 or more full-time equivalent sworn personnel to be included with certainty (self-representing), and for smaller agencies to be sampled from strata based on number of full-time equivalent sworn officers and type of agency. A total of 28 local police departments were determined to be out-of-scope for the survey because they had closed, had less than one full-time equivalent sworn officer, had contracted out their services with another law enforcement agency, or only had special enforcement responsibilities. The final mail out total of 3,471 agencies included 2,612 local police departments, 810 sheriffs' offices, and the 49 state agencies.

Data Collection Methodology

Time Method: Cross-section

Sampling Procedure:
The sample for the 2016 LEMAS was derived from the 2016 Law Enforcement Agency Roster (LEAR) database. The LEAR was originally built from a variety of sources including, but not limited to, the 2008 and 2014 Census of State and Local Law Enforcement Agencies (CSLLEA) and the 2013 LEMAS Survey. The 2016 LEAR contains a census of 15,810 general purpose law enforcement agencies, including 12,695 local and county police departments, 3,066 sheriffs' offices and 49 primary state police departments. Some agencies in the 2016 LEAR did not have sworn staffing counts, which were excluded from the LEMAS universe. Agencies without the equivalent of one full-time sworn officer and sheriffs' offices without primary law enforcement jurisdiction in the counties they served were also excluded. After these removals, the LEMAS universe consisted of 12,416 local and county police departments, 3,012 sheriffs' offices and 49 primary state police departments.

Local police departments and sheriffs' offices were chosen for the 2016 LEMAS using a stratified sample design based on number of full- and part-time sworn officers (part-time officers were counted as 0.5 full-time equivalents) and agency type. The sample represented all general purpose state and local law enforcement agencies in the U.S. with the equivalent of at least one full-time sworn officer with separate samples drawn of local police departments and sheriffs' offices. All 49 primary state law enforcement agencies (state police and highway patrol) and all local departments and sheriffs' offices with 100 or more full-time sworn officers were included. Agencies serving special jurisdictions (such as schools, airports, or parks), or with special enforcement responsibilities (such as conservation laws or alcohol laws), were considered out of scope for the LEMAS.

The original 2016 LEMAS sample included 3,499 local, county and state law enforcement agencies. During the initial contact phase, it was determined that 28 departments were ineligible for the survey. Two agencies were serving special jurisdictions or with special enforcement responsibilities. Fourteen local police departments had closed and two had contracted their law enforcement services with another agency. Lastly, ten local police departments had less than one full-time equivalent sworn officer (i.e., only one part-time sworn officer). After removing out of scope cases, the final eligible sample size for the survey was 3,471 and included 1,045 self-representing (SR) agencies with 100 or more full-time equivalent sworn personnel and 2,426 non-self-representing (NSR) agencies employing fewer than 100 full-time equivalent sworn personnel.

The SR agencies included 638 local police departments, 358 sheriff's offices, and 49 state law enforcement agencies. The NSR local police departments and NSR sheriffs' offices were selected using a stratified random sample with cells based on the number of sworn personnel and agency type. Overall, the NSR local police department sample included 1,974 agencies and the NSR sheriffs' offices sample included 452 agencies.

Mode of Data Collection: Data were collected using two self-administered modes: web (75%) or hardcopy (25%). Mode used was based on agency preference. Sixty-nine agencies responded using both web and hardcopy; in such cases, the data obtained via web were used.

Actions to Minimize Losses:
All departments, regardless of size, were asked to complete the 51-item LEMAS questionnaire. For the 2,779 agencies completing the survey, item nonresponse due to omission or invalid data were generally under 5%. Minimal imputation or data editing was conducted as most errors were addressed and corrected by respondents. Imputation was used to determine the number of full-time sworn officers. Cold-deck imputation was implemented using the value from the LEAR database for 32 agencies, including one primary state agency that did not submit a survey and provide data on item 1.

Multiple responses for operating budget were out of the expected range and were edited using data acquired from public sources. Cases were examined if the ratio of operating budget and FTE sworn officer was less than $35,000 or greater than $400,000. The budget was edited based on public sources, such as agency and government budgets reported on public websites for 293 agencies. No other variables were edited or imputed.

Weighting: The sampling design included 15 strata based on the number of sworn personnel and agency type. The base weight for all SR agencies, including all primary state police is 1.000. For NSR agencies, the base weights are determined by the number of sworn officers employed as reported in the 2016 LEAR. The base weights consist of the ratio of the sampling frame counts for each stratum (at the time of sampling before removing ineligible agencies) divided by the number of units sampled in the strata. The remaining strata and their corresponding base weights are as follows. For NSR sheriffs' offices with 50-99 officers, the base weight is 5.855; with 25-49 officers, 5.899; with 10-24 officers, 5.874; with 5-9 officers, 5.879; with 2-4 officers, 5.763; and with 1 officer, 6.250. For NSR local police departments with 50-99 officers, the base weight is 5.879; with 25-49 officers, 5.897; with 10-24 officers, 5.897; with 5-9 officers, 5.873; with 2-4 officers, 5.893; and with 1 officer, 5.885.

Data Appraisal Information

Response Rate:
Submitted surveys were considered complete if at least 60% of the questionnaire was complete. A total of 2,779 agencies completed their LEMAS questionnaire for an over-all response rate of 80.1%. This included 879 SR agencies (84.1%) and 1,900 NSR agencies (78.3%). The response rate for local police departments was 81.7%; for sheriffs' offices it was 74.1%; and for primary state law enforcement agencies it was 89.8%. The final database includes completed responses from 2,135 local police departments, 600 sheriffs' offices, and 44 state agencies. The final database also includes partial data for the remaining 5 state police agencies. Four state police agencies submitted partial questionnaires during data quality follow-up efforts. One state police agency did not submit a questionnaire but data for item one was imputed (see Actions to Minimize Losses). Therefore, the total number of cases in the final dataset is 2,784.

An adjustment factor unique to each stratum was used to account for nonresponse. These nonresponse adjustments were multiplied by the base weight in order to create the final analytical weight for each stratum. For state law enforcement agencies, the final weight is 1.114. For SR sheriffs' offices it is 1.321 and for SR local police departments the final weight is 1.131. For NSR sheriffs' offices with 50-99 officers, the final weight is 7.408; with 25-49 officers, 7.392; with 10-24 officers, 8.811; with 5-9 officers, 7.667; with 2-4 officers, 9.125; and with 1 officer, 12.500. For NSR local police departments with 50-99 officers, the final weight is 7.185; with 25-49 officers, 6.914; with 10-24 officers, 6.978; with 5-9 officers, 7.305; with 2-4 officers, 8.134; and with 1 officer, 9.200.

Estimates of Sampling Error:
The accuracy of the estimates presented in this report depends on two types of error: sampling and non-sampling. Sampling error is the variation that may occur by chance because a sample was used rather than a complete enumeration of the population. Non-sampling error can be attributed to many sources, such as the inability to obtain information about all cases in the sample, inability to obtain complete and correct information from the administrative records, and processing errors. In any survey, the full extent of the non-sampling error is never known.

The sampling error, as measured by an estimated standard error, varies by the size of the estimate and the size of the base population. Because the 2016 LEMAS data were collected from a sample, the results are subject to sampling error. Variance and standard error estimates for the 2016 LEMAS were generated using the IBM SPSS statistical software package. The Taylor linearization method for a "stratified without replacement" design was used for these calculations.

Standard error estimates may be used to construct confidence intervals around the percentages in this report. For example, the 95% confidence interval around the percentage of local police departments with bilingual or multilingual staff was 40.4% ± 1.96 × 0.95% (or approximately 42.3% to 38.5%).

Standard error estimates may also be used to construct confidence intervals around numeric variables such as personnel counts. For example, the 95% confidence interval around the number of full-time sworn personnel was approximately 701,273 ± 1.96 × 17,273, or 667,417 to 735,128.

New Hires and Separations Variables

The 2016 LEMAS data includes 24 variables on hires and separations, which include the number of hires and separations by race, ethnicity and sex (question 13). There are total variables across race (PERS_NEW_TOTR and PERS_SEP_TOTR) and sex (PERS_NEW_TOTS and PERS_SEP_TOTS). BJS uses the sex totals to estimate the total number of hires and separations. In evaluating the initial estimates for total hires and total separations, BJS further inspected the case data and noted some inconsistencies in reporting. BJS did not modify the originally reported values for any of these items. Instead new total variables for hires (New_Tot_Hires) and separations (New_Tot_Sep) were computed.

The following steps were taken to correct these data in order to provide a more accurate estimate on the total number of hires and total number of separations.

Step 1: Create new variables for total hires (New_Tot_Hires) and total separations (New_Tot_Sep). Original values from PERS_NEW_TOTS and PERS_SEP_TOTS were imputed for these variables.

Step 2: Identify outliers. The following situations were flagged in order to convert values in New_Tot_Hires and New_Tot_Sep to missing (-9):

- FLAG1: Agencies that had at least 10 full-time sworn (FTSWORN) and the number of hires (PERS_NEW_TOTS) was greater than or equal to the number of full-time sworn (FTSWORN). N=24
- FLAG2: Agencies that had less than 10 full-time sworn (FTSWORN) and the number of hires (PERS_NEW_TOTS) was 10 or more. N=3
- FLAG3: Agencies with less than 500 full-time sworn (FTSWORN), 50 or more hires (PERS_NEW_TOTS) and 0 separations (PERS_SEP_TOTS). N=4
- FLAG4: Agencies with missing hires (PERS_NEW_TOTS) and 0 or more separations (PERS_SEP_TOTS). N=11
- FLAG6: Agencies with missing separations (PERS_SEP_TOTS) and 0 or more hires (PERS_NEW_TOTS). N=56
- FLAG7: Agencies with missing hires (PERS_NEW_TOTS) and missing separations (PERS_SEP_TOTS). N=44

Step 3: Compute FLAG5: Agencies with at least 500 full-time sworn, had one or more hires and reported 0 separations. There were 5 cases. These agencies were contacted to confirm their separations were 0. BJS received updated data for 4 of the 5 cases, and these values were imputed for New_Tot_Hires and New_Tot_Sep The other case was set to missing in New_Tot_Hires and New_Tot_Sep.

Step 4: Calculate non-response adjustment (in in file) for the new total hires (New_Tot_Hires) and new total separations (New_Tot_Sep) variables. There are 141 cases missing data after Step 2-3 adjustments. [Note: Two agencies met conditions for both FLAG1 and FLAG3.]

Step 5: Create new final weight (FINALWGT_NTH_NTS) for the new total hires (New_Tot_Hires) and new total separations (New_Tot_Sep) variables by multiplying the original final weight (FINALWGT) by the non-response adjustment in Step 4.

The original sex and race breakouts for these cases were not adjusted. Cases set to missing and cases for which the value was imputed in the new total variables will still have reported values in the original variables. Data users are advised to set the cases flagged for New_Tot_Hires and New_Tot_Sep to missing in the original breakout variables and use FINALWGT_NTH_NTS before producing estimates by sex or race and ethnicity for hires and separations.
